

This annual tournament promises to be a wonderful addition to the ladies golfing calendar ...

Diamonds and drivers

The inaugural Sanctuary Cove Ladies Classic tees off in March 2012.

Ladies ... grab your putters (and the rest of your clubs) for the inaugural Sanctuary Cove Ladies Golf Classic. This new and exciting event is set to take place on The Pines and The Palms over three days – 11, 12, 13 March 2012. The annual tournament promises to be a wonderful addition to the ladies golfing calendar and has the potential to grow into one of Australia's most popular amateur competitions for women.

Not only will the event provide a great golfing opportunity, it will also allow competitors, sponsors and supporters to raise money for the Adam Scott Foundation, with all proceeds being put towards the construction of a Youth Hostel in Labrador.

Players of all levels are welcome, with the event kicking off with a fun Foursome on Day One, followed by two days of 18-hole competition golf. There will also be the opportunity to mix and mingle with fellow golfers at the Official 'Meet and Greet', as well as the dinner and presentation functions.

Event organiser Faye Wyer said the committee was excited to be staging such an important event.

"We have come together to create and run this event to showcase our great golf courses and our Sanctuary Cove village," Faye explains. "We are hoping to attract approximately 250+ ladies from around Australia."

Internationally renowned jeweller John Callieja has generously designed and donated a diamond-set putter which will be offered as first prize. There is also a $50,000 diamond up for grabs (courtesy of Café St Tropez) if anyone scores a Hole-in-One, as well as many other fabulous daily prizes.

Several sponsors, including Mulpha Sanctuary Cove (Developments) Pty Limited, Hyatt Regency Sanctuary Cove, Sanctuary Cove Publishing and Cove Travel have already come on board, with the committee calling for expressions of interest from other parties.

"Whether you would like to take part in the event, sponsor a hole or donate raffle and competition prizes, there are many ways you can get involved," said Faye. "And with the funds being donated to the Adam Scott Foundation, it really is a worthy cause."

Entry fee for the three-day event is just $330 and includes Green/Cart fees, range balls, welcome pack, daily prizes, Welcome Cocktail Party, Official Dinner and Presentation Barbecue. For bookings email scg11@gmail.com and for more information contact Faye Wyer 0416 069 484 or Marlene Kirk on 0408 857 845. ●

ACCOMMODATION PACKAGE

Cove Travel has put together some exclusive Hyatt Regency Sanctuary Cove accommodation packages for the event. Airfares and other travel arrangements are also available.

▶ For more information or to secure your place contact Cove Travel.

T +61 7 5577 9211

E info@covetravel.com.au

W www.covetravel.com.au